New Solution of the Bering Brothers' Failure—Untrustful Statements About Koch's Discovery.

LONDON, Nov. 24.—A dispatch from Warsaw, by way of Vienna, states that the father of one of the three young soldiers who were hastily executed by General Gourko, the military governor, on a charge of murder, of which they proved to be entirely innocent, has gone insane. The father in question is a well-to-do merchant, and offered several thousand rubles to a charitable object if his son should be respite long enough for a thorough inquiry. The respite was refused, and the day after the execution the real murderer surrendered. The affair has caused a great sensation in Russia. General Gourko is watched for fear he may commit suicide. He has fallen under the deep displeasure of the Czar and is temporarily relieved from his office, pending His Majesty's decision as to what, if any, punishment he shall undergo for his blunder.

It is expected that the Queen's speech at the opening of Parliament tomorrow will refer to the Bering Sea dispute as a question of peace and war, even though no hope for a speedy and amicable settlement. It will declare that assistance from the government has become a necessity in Ireland owing to the shortage of the potato crop of certain districts. It will also urge the necessity of the immediate passage of the Irish Land Purchase bill or some other similar measure. The settlement of the tithe dispute is earnestly recommended, and some extension of the Facilities bill, with a view of facilitating the employment of workmen in dangerous situations, is suggested.

BARING BROTHERS' FAILURE.

WAS IT CAUSED BY THE JEWS TO INSURE RUIN?

LONDON, Nov. 24.—The Weekly Dispatch, in the course of a remarkable article on the late financial situation, asks:

THE DISTRICT'S LEGAL WORK.

Attorney Bazzano Makes His Report to the Commissioners.

District Attorney Upton has submitted his annual report ending June, 1890, to the Commissioners. He says: "I present my respects to my predecessors in the office of the District Attorney, and I wish to place on December 1, 1890, the duties of the office of Attorney for the District of Columbia. The vacancies caused by the resignation of the several assistant attorneys for the District provided by law were filled, respectively, by the appointment of Mr. Sidney T. Thomas, Mr. Nellie Dumont and Mr. Mason. Mr. Richardson, all gentle men, of high character, and well qualified in the law for the official duties to which they were appointed."

The District Attorney makes a review of the business of his office in its relation to the court of the District and the Supreme Court of the United States and cites the following cases which were pending in the Supreme Court of the District when his official term commenced, and which were disposed of by him: U.S. v. Baring Bros.—The Plaintiff in error filed suit against the Secretary of the Treasury, who has been long familiar with the requirements of the Treasury. He said to me: "The next house will have before it a most serious task. The tariff legislation will have to be revised, but what we want to do and must do is to avoid any extreme legislation, such as, I think, was the last measure passed. There will be no deficiency this year. That is all I know about this year's deficiency. But next year I think there will be a decided one."

Under the McKinley bill, through prohibitory duty upon some articles and reduced duties upon others, there will be a marked decrease in the revenues. The expenditures are constantly increasing. The pension for next year will be in the neighborhood of $150,000,000 and under the new bill will amount to nearly $150,000,000 or $190,000,000.

To meet all of these requirements there must be new legislation. It is possible that this legislation will be arranged through a modification of the present tariff so that the revenues will be increased through the increase of importations. We would have had a deficiency this year if it had not been for the covering into the Treasury of $50,000,000 held as a trust fund for national banks in liquidation."

The following cases have been compromised: District of Columbia v. the District of Columbia, Charles B. Church vs. the District, Charles vs. the District, Messrs. Frank Hunt, W. B. Moses and George M. Kennedy were the arbitrators. The cases were old ones and had been several times tried with varying results. Alexander vs. the District, "the Murdoch case," the case of W. Murdoch, was entered "dismissed agreed," and the case of William C. Murdoch, was, of Evans vs. the District, was entered in favor of the plaintiff for $2,750. These were all cases growing out of contracts for asphalt paving.
